

A large grid of 225 empty circles, arranged in 15 rows and 15 columns, intended for students to place dots representing data points.

